GEN. LEE'S SON IN GRANT DAY ADDRESS

In Celebration of Great General's Birth Day at Galena
Praises Kindness to South.

Says as President Grant Did Much to Lighten Burden of Bitterness After War.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Galena, Ill., April 27.—Hilbert Lee, general solicitor of the Illinois Central railroad, and son of the late Lieut.-Gen. Stephen Dill Lee, delivered the principal address here today at the celebration of the birthday of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, who lived here at the breaking out of the civil war and as the head of a company volunteered his services to the union.

After reviewing the rise of General Grant to his position as head of the union armies in the civil war and describing some of the events of that war, Mr. Lee said in part:
"During the whole of the reconstruction period, a time of bitterness and regret, of sorrow and pain, the burden of the defeated south was made more tolerable by the steady kindness, the understanding, one might almost say the sympathy of General Grant. His great prestige as commander-in-chief of the victorious army, his personal popularity, which made him a powerful force with which to reckon, and in time placed him in the great office of president of the United States, were unhesitatingly used for the protection of the southern people. And so it came about that I cannot remember, and I think no southerner of my generation remembers, to have heard one harsh word spoken in our own section about General Grant. Among the soldiers of the nation, he more than any other man, commanded both the love of the north and the honor and respect of the south."

The speaker declared that the south shared the feeling with the whole country "that it is well that we are one people, that the flag of the republic still floats from the lakes to the sea and from ocean to ocean; that the south shares with the north its satisfaction at the abolition of slavery."
We have one country and we have a country, and for both of these things we thank General Grant."

In closing, Mr. Lee urged the holding of special exercises every year at Galena in celebration of Grant's birthday.

FEW LOTS OFFERED FOR GARDENING WORK

Altho numerous appeals to property owners for vacant lots for planting have been made, only five lots have been donated. Mrs. Lillian Holbach, chairman of the Aurora Charity council, said today. Many applications for lots have been received by Mrs.
Holbach from poor families, but there have not been enough donated to go around. Persons desiring some of the 50 bushels of seed potatoes donated by Mayor Harley must make personal application at the office of Mrs. Holbach in the city hall.

IOWA DRIES FEAR COUP BY THE LIQUOR INTERESTS

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Des Moines, Iowa, April 27.—The state department of justice today was asked to investigate the resolution, passed by the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh general assemblies, providing for insertion in the state constitution of a prohibitory amendment.
According to B. W. Garrett, clerk of the supreme court, the resolution as passed by the two legislatures provides that the new amendment shall become Section 27 of Article 1 of the constitution.
Section 26, it appears in the official publications, is the only constitutional amendment relating to prohibition declared invalid by the supreme court, and is therefore not officially a part of the constitution. It is held that the prohibition amendment should be Section 26, not Section 27.
Prohibition leaders fear that "water"
might make the technicality grounds for a content in case the amendment were adopted.

SLAV MOB BREAKS UP PEACE MEETING

Refuse to Heed Pleas of Socialist Lenine That Russia Make Separate Peace.

Press Declares Nation Must Stand by Belgium, Serbia and France in the War.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)
Petrograd, April 26, via London,
April 27.—A small riot was precipitated last night when a crowd drove the audience of the socialist Lenin into the street as a protest against his exhortations for a cessation of the war and his attacks on the provisional government. A score of Lenin's followers were arrested but the agitator himself remains at liberty.

Lenine, who recently returned from exile thru Germany, has become the leader of a faction of socialists who seemingly desire the cessation of the war, regardless of the consequences to Russia. He is living in the palace of the famous dancer Kheselska, a former favorite of the emperor, from the balconies of which he daily and nightly harangues his followers. It is generally assumed that he is in the pay of Germany and at any rate his return, facilitated as it was by the German government, leaves little doubt in the minds of the great majority of Russians that he is working in the interest of a separate peace at the instigation of Germany.
His activity is permitted by the government, which fears that his arrest would make him a martyr and that he is less harmful at liberty.

Stand by Belgium and Serbia.
On the question of peace, the newly established Workingmen's Gazette says:
"Every day the bourgeois newspapers repeat the same thing, namely, that peace without annexation means a separate peace and that those opposed to a separate peace must continue the war to a full victory and the rule of German militarism and imperialism. That is an error. We do not want a separate peace because Belgium, Serbia and France would be the victims of such a peace."
The paper then outlines the peace conditions which it advocates and which are based on a restoration of the previous map of Europe and full freedom for all nations.

Riot on Revolution.
The Russian Volla says:
"Not only socialists but even anarchists refuse to recognize Lenin.
Communism and 'Leninism' have little political importance but threaten to cause a branch in the ranks of the socialists. It is a pity that such a mischievous influence has arisen to blot the greatness of the Russian revolution. Kheselska's palace, which was formerly the scene of the dancer's scandals, has now become the scene of political scandals, and with the roles changed, Lenine is now performing his anarchistic dance."

Corns Peel Right Off With "Gets-It"

1 Drop, and the Corn is a "Goner!"

Use "Gets-It" Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Besides, They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off!

Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrink from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off. There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It." No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" does away forever with the need of painful, irritating, bandages that make a bundle of your toes, and that half do the work, knives and pliers that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digging or cutting. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Advertisement.

Sold in Aurora and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Grimm's drug store.

Society

An address of thanks, worded in a manner which would do credit to a far older person, and written in a clear, legible hand, has been received, showing what was said by Florence Parker, a little girl in Center school, who was obliged to stand upon a stool yesterday to thank the Daughters of the American Revolution for the handsome flag which they gave to the school and which was displayed yesterday at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher club. The address reads:

"We the undersigned children of Center school wish to thank you very, very much for the magnificent flag with which you presented us. It has been placed in the lower half of our school, where every one can see it as he comes and goes. Many of the pupils salute the flag when they come to school and when they go home. It was placed in the hall two weeks ago."

"When I first saw the flag, I felt that it was my own flag and I think every other pupil felt the same. We all love the colors. Red stands for the blood which has been shed to save us, white stands for purity and blue stands for truth. "We have been learning some poems, one of which is 'The Flag Goes By' and the other 'Your Flag and My Flag.' "We sing 'The Star Spangled Banner' and 'America' every day. Like the national song because I know the story of how Frances Scott Key wrote it at the time of the siege of Baltimore during the war of 1812. "Our teacher has planned to allow us to have a flag for our room, so we can give the flag salute every day. "I hope in the coming year, if there is to be one, that the men who no longer share as the men did in the revolutionary war and be as true to the flag as they were then."

The meeting was one of the largest and most enjoyable of the year.

Any number of members of the D. A. R. were present, as well as representatives from the Daughters of Veterans, and many parents. The first four grades were assembled in the hall and to the stairs, and these were followed by the upper grades similarly arranged. The flag exercises included the salute to the flag, the Star Spangled Banner, sung by the pupils, the address of thanks given by Florence Parker, poem, "The Flag Goes By", Room 12 in concert; poem, "Your Flag and My Flag", four upper rooms in concert; remarks by Mrs. Helen Daily, president of the local D. A. R., and song "America."

The guests were asked to remain to listen to the fine paper on "Good Reading for Children", given by Mrs. Ida Sawyer Allen, which contained a plea for good literature, for children, with many suggestions as to the kind and amount of reading material, and illustrated with most artistic illustrations. It was arranged to send a delegate from this club to the state meeting of Parent-Teacher clubs at Bloomington. The next meeting will be held the last Thursday in May.

T. A. club. The T. A. club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. W. Patterson in the home of Mrs. Patterson. The scores at cards were made by Madeline Carpenter and Patterson. Luncheon was served.

Farewell to Church Members. The members of the Fourth Street Methodist church will hold an informal reception this evening in the church parlors for Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Sumner, members of the church for years, who are about to leave for their new home in Joliet. A cordial invitation is extended to their friends to be present.

Celebrate Church Anniversary. The seventh anniversary of Our Lady of Good Counsel church was celebrated yesterday. High mass was celebrated in the morning while in the afternoon the women of the Ladies' Aid society entertained at cards. Honors were won in the afternoon by Mrs. James Welton, Mrs. William Capp and Mrs. Fred Hoyer. In the evening those winning favors were Mrs. William Lynn, Mrs. Theodore Hanks, Mrs. Peter Hilgen, Nicholas Hanks, John Groesch and Conrad Schmitt.

Ladies' Aid Social Meeting. A social meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church was held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. There were readings by Miss Beatrice Watt and violin numbers by Miss Josephine Wilmarth accompanied by Jean Stuart. Afternoon refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Dinner Before Dance. Miss Sara Holden will entertain a few friends at dinner this evening before the dancing party which will be given in Yoeen hall by Miss Kathryn Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Watson.

W. C. T. U. Institute. The W. C. T. U. Institute at Dundee yesterday proved to be interesting in all branches of work conducted by the union and was well attended by members from Aurora, Batavia, St. Charles, Elgin and Waukegan. There are 468 members in the county and nine unions. Encouraging reports were received, especially from the department devoted to work in the schools, including the prize essay idea which has been advanced with success in Aurora and Batavia as well as the anti-narcotic work, reports of which were received from the Batavia schools. The department of Elgin being appointed county superintendent in charge of this work.

The Reverend Mr. Newlands gave an excellent address, enlightening the work of Frances Willard, while Mrs. George McGinnis of Aurora gave a fine talk summing up the prohibition work in the state and nation.

CLERK ALL RUN-DOWN Restored to Health By Vinol. Shelbyville, Ind.—"I am a clerk in a hotel and was run down, no energy, my blood was poor and my face covered with pimples. I got so weak I had to put up an awful fight to keep at work. After taking many other remedies without benefit, Vinol has restored my health and strength."—Roy F. Smith.

magazines toward the liquor problem is slowly changing, even the cartoonists showing a tendency to favor the dry side of the question. A telegram was sent to County W. C. T. U. President Mrs. D. C. Cromer, who is recovering from a surgical operation in the Highlands sanitarium.

Eureka Domestic Science. The Eureka Domestic Science circle is composed largely of women living in the country or just at the edge of town, and who therefore were among the subscribers who failed to receive papers of yesterday's issue owing to an accident which befell the Beacon-News press. This meant that the advertisement which they inserted calling attention to their food sale at the Graf candy shop Saturday was not seen. They'll have this sale just the same, including dressed chickens, fresh eggs, Dutch cheese and everything under the sun.

Jennings Seminary Meeting. The Ladies' Aid society of Jennings seminary met at the seminary building for luncheon yesterday and later listened to a fine talk given by Miss Lucy Hall, who related many of her experiences in connection with the physical education work which she conducts in Chicago. Miss Hall is one of the prominent social workers of the city closely in touch with leaders of the Federation of Women's clubs and other women's organizations. Miss Warrington, who accompanied her, told of her personal work in the city hospital and almshouse in which so many of Chicago's less fortunate are receiving. Miss Hall was formerly a student at Jennings seminary, back in the days when outdoor wells and cisterns, stoves and other inconveniences were the rule, and later in the day she told the girl students of these early days.

Annual Banquet at Y. W. C. A. The third annual banquet of the physical education work of the Y. W. C. A. was held last evening at 530 A. street. The banquet was in charge of the Girls' council, assisted by some of the older women, while the serving was done by the younger girls, wearing gym shoes in which they glistened about, serving with both speed and skill. Ninety-one sat down to a menu consisting of fruit, chicken, corn, buttered rolls, olive, spring salad, strawberry sherbet, angel cake, coffee, wafers, nuts.

The girls of this department have been preparing salted peanuts of late, selling them for the benefit of the swimming pool after fund, and the toast was all lined up on the subject of "nuts." The table was decorated in purple and gold, the flowers daisies.

Mrs. Emma Wilmarth was the toastmistress, the program having been as follows: Piano solo, Miss Maud Hewson. Singing, Miss Jeanette Hughes. "Blanching," Mrs. Alice Gowman. "Roasting," Miss Flora Kline. Two songs, Miss Mary Snyder. "Rolling and Salting," Miss Melissa Clark.

"Selling," Mrs. A. Eastbrook. "Baking," Mrs. E. E. Cromer. "Peasants," Miss Alice Kline. Whistling solo, Miss Laura Kreeger. Catholic Women's League. At a meeting of women representing the various departments of work conducted by the Catholic women of Aurora, held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Margaret R. Miller, final arrangements were made looking toward the future conduct of all work of these women under one head, to be known as the Aurora Woman's Catholic League. The by-laws recently drafted were read, consisting of the by-laws under which the league has been operating and which were founded upon those of the Woman's League of Chicago, so extended as to include all workings of the other departments of Aurora work.

The colors of the new league will be purple and gold, the motto to be "For God, our homes and humanity." The pledge subscribed to by the members, is that given at one time by the archbishop to the Chicago league, and reads as follows: "Letting go the unworthy things that meet us, pretense, worry, discontent and self-seeking and taking loyal hold of true work, present happiness, love, duty, fellowship, sor-

How Fat Folks May Become Slim

GET RID OF TEN TO SIXTY POUNDS

To be excessively fat is very mortifying. People who are too stout are usually sensitive on this subject. Style and fat are inseparable. Therefore, people who are carrying around a burden of unhealth and ugliness will be glad to know that they may reduce their weight without starvation diet or fireproof exercises. If you want to become thinner in a simple, safe and reliable way, here is a test worth trying. Spend some time daily in the open air, and get from the drug store a box of oil of kerosene capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Also follow the other simple directions that come with the box. Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight, and don't let the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal. Oil of kerosene is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take and costs little. A testing sample box of kerosene capsules will be mailed free, in a plain envelope. If you write to Kerosene Company, 1636 E. Arcade, East 25th Street, New York.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, with the flesh firm, the skin smooth and the general health improved. If you are ten to six pounds overweight, you should give this treatment a trial. You will likely find it is just what you need.—Adv.

row and faith at us life with all truth and be inspiration, strength and blessing to those whose lives are touched by ours.

"What is worth while." The officers of the league, as well as the officers of the Catholic Ladies' Aid and of the St. Catherine's guild, will all hold over until one year from now when general officers will be elected. The league will be conducted much as is the Woman's club, with a central treasury, while each department will maintain its own line of work and own treasury. Meetings of the entire league will be held every three months. The different departments will arrange their own times of meeting.

To Give Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Berman will give a dinner this evening to eight in honor of Mrs. Berman's brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rubens. The dinner will be carried out in white and gold. Mr. and Mrs. Rubens are staying for a time at the home of Mr. Rubens' sister, Mrs. L. C. Lewis, but later will take apartments in the new hotel.

Celebrate Victory. The victory of the Aurora college in the state oratorical contest at Greenfield will be celebrated at the annual banquet of the prohibition league of the college this evening. Frederick Fenton who carried off first awards will be honored.

Mrs. Wagner's Party. Mrs. Edward J. Wagner entertained eight girl friends at Lebanon last evening at her home in Carleton.

Five Hundred Club. Miss Helen Denney entertained the five hundred club at her home in South Fourth street last evening. Honors were won by Mrs. Fletcher Royston. Luncheon was served later. Mrs. C. E. Kobelez will have the next meeting.

Farewell Party. Mrs. George R. Warner of Spruce street entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. R. Dickenson and Mrs. W. E. Francis who are leaving Aurora soon. Mrs. Harry O'Hagan of Chicago and Mrs. Oliver Burkhardt of Oswego were out of town guests. Honors at bridge were made by Miss Elizabeth Augustine and Mrs. Bruce Amell. A two course luncheon was served after cards.

Willing Workers' Class. Mrs. Merle Anderson of Beach street entertained the Willing Workers' class of the Salem United Evangelical church yesterday afternoon. There was the usual business session after which the women sewed. Light refreshments were served and plans were made to entertain the cradle roll department soon.

First Aid Class. Another class in first aid work will be organized this evening at the Y. W. C. A. Dr. A. E. Diller will have charge.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING GAINS.
That newspaper advertising is growing by leaps and bounds is shown by the report made at the annual meeting of American newspaper men in New York this week.

The American Newspaper association of which The Beacon-News is a member, maintains a bureau that tabulates the figures on advertising all over the country. The report of this bureau shows that during 1916 newspaper advertising gained $20,000,000 while magazine advertising gained only $9,000,000.

The record shows further that during the first three months of this year newspaper advertising gained 16 per cent over the corresponding period last year. This in spite of the fact that a year ago war did not seem probable, while this year the country is in an unsettled condition.

The New York Evening Post also offers some interesting figures in the advertising for March carried by the newspapers in 15 of the largest cities.

The increase for the month over the same period a year ago was nearly 300,000 inches. The increase was shared by 68 newspapers, only 16 showing losses. Of the 15 cities in the tabulation only one showed a loss, Milwaukee.

LEVYING THE WAR TAX.
Congress is now considering the levying of war taxes to pay the big bill we have contracted for in declaring war against Germany.

As has been declared in the Beacon-News from the start, this is no summer day's job any more than putting down civil rebellion in '61 was boys' play.

War is an exacting taskmaster. In raising war money the same principle should be used as in levying income and inheritance taxes—place the burden upon the shoulders of those best able to bear it, the tax increasing in proportion to the wealth.

Moderate incomes should be protected just as far as possible. The high cost of living in the past was low compared with what we must face for the immediate future and no one knows how long.

The necessities of life should be made to bear the least possible share of the burden for upon them we must depend to keep up the health of the people.

The luxuries can be taxed heavily without hardship to anyone.

BIG FIGURES.
Much talk has been heard in certain circles of the apparent indifference with which we set aside the huge sum of $7,000,000,000 for war.

Well, why not? The first day the treasury certificates were offered the total amount, $200,000,000, was over-subscribed by the banks alone.

The capital wealth of the country at the close of 1916 was placed at $187,000,000,000 with a population probably over the 105,000,000 mark.

In 1860 the population was nearly 31,500,000 and the taxable property was about $16,000,000,000. In 1870 the population was 38,500,000 and the taxable property on a gold basis was $24,000,000,000.

In the fifty years following the civil war the United States experienced prosperity such as the world never before saw. Internal improvements during that period stamped us as the world's greatest creators of wealth.

We have been making money so fast in this country that figures seem of little account to us.

But as we have been making money in unprecedented fashion so also will we be spending it when fully we get into the war.

It behooves the country to carefully conserve its resources.

FACT AND FANCY.
Washington dispatches say that at the dinner given by President Wilson for Mr. Balfour and others of the British commission at the White House the other night, Champ Clark and Gen. G. T. Bridges were guests.

YOUR HEALTH

(By JOHN B. HUBER, A. M., M. D.)
Let good digestion wait on appetite, and health on both.—Shakespeare.

The essential feature of gout is the deposition into and around joints of sodium uric acid crystals, from blood that has become saturated with uric acid. The "purin bodies" in food, those which contain excess of uric acid in the circulation should be minimized (they cannot entirely be avoided) by whomsoever has a tendency to gout. Apart from high living there is a hereditary in gout, there are those among us who spring from a gouty stock. The comparatively rare cases of gout in women are thus explained. One may be spared this manifestation if other causative factors are prevented from adding their weight to this factor of heredity. If anyone with such an inheritance will live the hygienic life, will guard against excess in food and drink, will drink tea, coffee and alcohol moderately, will be very temperate, abstinent, if possible, as to alcohol (especially), will guard carefully against sudden temperature and elemental changes—wet and cold and against chilling of the skin, he will avoid much gout.

There is a relation between some occupations and gout—painters are prone, also decorators, plumbers, printers, leather workers, whitewashers, linemen, workers in lead generally, butchers, cabmen, druggists, men, longshoremen, hotel servants, lobster place waiters, waiters, waitresses and the like.

Among the purin free or nearly purin free foods are: Milk, eggs, white bread, biscuits, buns, tapioca, cornstarch, rice, farina, sugar and syrup, jam and marmalade, cake (except with coffee and chocolate flavorings), cream soups, potatoes (baked in moderation), cauliflower, cabbage, lettuce, eggplant, nuts, cheese, ice cream, custard or coconut pie. Baked meats, especially if boiled in two waters, and boiled fish, are preferable, because the purins are thus to a large degree removed from them. From such substances as these one's physician will prescribe when one has either an acute attack or has premonitions of an attack of gout pending.

The gouty must abstain from any food which they have learned from experience will not agree with them. Plenty of water must be drunk, because no food is digested or absorbed that is not ultimately in liquid form. No one prone to gout should eat sweetbreads, kidneys, liver, most extracts, salt fish, rice, oyster, or highly seasoned foods.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
LIFE ACID.
1. What is the cause of uric acid? 2. Is there a cure? 3. Would bathing such as are given at sanitariums help me? 4. Do you think drinking lemon juice of any benefit?

Answer:—1. It is the result of disturbed metabolism, the process by which the oxygen we breathe and the food and drink we consume are all together converted into healthy and vigorous tissues. Uric acid is a symptom of poor metabolism. The two things that have nothing in common. Rheumatism is an infection; gout is a disease of metabolism. By now you have no doubt read my article on rheumatism. Read that today on Gout. 2. Yes; by diet, exercise, massage and medicines as the doctor prescribes. 3. Hot and tepid baths will help in rheumatism. 4. In acute rheumatism, excellent; a hot lemonade with a teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda. It is effective.

EVENING CHIT-CHAT

(By RUTH CAMERON)

Is there anything in the world more marvelous than our sense of the reality of people in books and the hold they sometimes get on our affections—or the opposite?

Don't you occasionally catch yourself wondering who among your friends said such and such a thing, and then remember that it was somebody in a book?

She Never Even Comes into the Book.
It is especially wonderful to me to find how slight a character can have this reality to us. In one of Margaret Deland's latest books there is a "Kate" who does not actually appear in the story at all. One of the characters has been in love with her 19 years before the book opens.

She is referred to occasionally by him and by the other people in the book. That is all. And yet I had a self-convinced idea of what Kate looked like and such a powerful sense of her existence that I found myself wondering, as I finished a chapter, what she thought of the things that had happened in it.

When the Door is Shut to One's Face.
I have really suffered positive home-sickness sometimes when I had good books down for the last time and knew that the door had been shut—however gently—on my face and that I couldn't know what happened to those dear friends of mine, what further adventures befell them, whether they were happy or married.

The "Newcomer" is one such book. "Little Women" is another. All books for which the public have insistently (and usually with unwarranted results) called for a sequel.

So, you see, by the way, a serial that was superior, or even equal, to the original book. Compare "Little Women" and "Little Men," "Sentimental Tommy" and "Tommy and Grizel."

The Semi-Serial the Only Good Serial.
To my mind there is only one class of serial that is as artistic success and that is the semi-serial in which the characters are the same, but the background changes. Take for instance Margaret Deland's "Awakening" of Helena Ritchie and its semi-serial "The Iron Woman."

Really, when you stop to think of it, of all the facilities of enjoyment and interest that have been given us, we could least spare this strange power to lose ourselves in the lives of these people who never existed.

Other friends may say too, for us, we forget us or turn against us. These friends never will fail us.

THE SEARCHLIGHT

Buttons From Milk.
A process for converting milk into buttons has recently been perfected by a couple of French chemists, Francois Lebrun and Raoul Desgrege. The milk is first skimmed of its fat; then it is heated and mixed with rennet until curds begin to form. This substance is then boiled and exposed to the air, after which acetone is used to make it hard, plastic and transparent. It can then be rolled into sheets of soft, silk-like fabric, or solid into ivory for buttons, combs, umbrella handles, toilet articles, etc., which are not only attractive in appearance, but durable as well. Food is too valuable in Europe at present to use for bric-a-brac and buttons, but when the war is over we are likely to hear more of this unique milk process.

grannies used to consider invaluable remedies.
"Spring and summer he wears always an old overcoat, and carries a basket with double covers, very much worn and brown with usage. His cane is of hickory with a crooked root for a handle, this is also shiny with age. He gathers bitter bark, tansy, ginseng, calamus, smartweed and slippery elm, and from along old fences and barnyards, catnip and boneseed. I suppose he lives somewhere, a hole in a log, or the limb of a tree, but no one knows where it is, or how he dries or cures his findings. No one knows his name."

"I met him once in the town road, and he stopped humbly without lifting his eyes, and opening his basket let out into the air such a fragrance of ancient simples as I never smelled before. He said nothing at all; but took out dry bundles of catnip, sassafras, slippery elm, to show me. He had also pennyroyal for healing toms, and calamus and bitter-bark for milderew. I selected a choice assortment of his wares to take home, but could get him to name no price. He took what I gave without objection and without thanks, and went his way. A true man of the hills."

One of life's minor ironies is when your wife discovers that the woman whom she detests has bought a bonnet just like her own.

(By Frederic J. Haskin.)

Washington, D. C., April 24.—Since our declaration of war one service of the weather bureau to the general public has been stopped; its observations of the movements of shipping are no longer published. These observations are made upon a larger scale than ever, in order that the government may have the fullest possible knowledge of the whereabouts of our merchant vessels which must be protected from submarines, but the information is withheld from publication to keep it out of enemy hands.

Orally weather map which shows the movements of storm areas over and near the North American continent will doubtless also be withheld from publication if actual hostilities take place; for weather is an important element in war. The firing of big guns at long range and the use of torpedoes are largely affected by weather conditions. In a naval battle off our coast, an enemy fleet which did not know what to expect from the way of weather would be at a disadvantage compared to our own for all possible information is furnished by the weather bureau to the navy department every day.

The importance of weather in war is shown by the fact that when the European war broke out all of the intelligent governments immediately withheld from publication their weather observations, which had until that time been used for the publication of an international weather map of the northern hemisphere.

In addition to these regular services of reporting the movements of vessels from its coastal stations in co-operation with the coast patrol, and keeping the navy department informed as to meteorological conditions, the weather bureau is now making studies of the upper atmosphere which are of the greatest military value. The observation of upper air currents by means of kites and balloons, which the bureau has been carrying on for several years, is largely for the benefit of the aerological corps. This information is of value to the navy department in naval warfare, for in firing at long range the big guns throw their projectiles several thousand feet in the air, and knowledge of what wind velocities will be encountered at these heights is indispensable to accurate pointing.

The service which the weather bureau is able to contribute to the efficiency of the nation as a fighting organization are really the least important part of its activities even in times of peace. For our war problem is chiefly one of food supplies, and in the production and transportation of food, the prophecies of the weather bureau are implicitly relied upon for protection from floods, snow, frost, storm, and drought. In Medford, Ore., which is the heart of the northwestern fruit country, the bureau has a special service to the orchardists against the approach of frosts. When this man says the word, millions of little oil burners are lit in the orchards, and the apple blossoms are brought safely through freezing weather by artificial heat. Down in Louisiana the people have learned to look for the flood warnings implicitly. At the weather bureau says the river is going to rise 10 inches, during the night, they move their property to higher ground, and go to bed with perfect confidence that it will not get wet.

Savings on Great Lakes.
Shipping on the great lakes is probably saved more actual cash every year by the weather bureau than any other business interest in the country. In the fall there are always some destructive storms on the lakes, and always a few old vessels are lost, but the great majority of them are saved by the timely warnings of these storms which the weather bureau has been giving since 1905 and has been kept since then by C. H. Adams.

The weather bureau desires an observer in every county in the United States, but many of the sparsely settled counties of the west are not represented. There is an opportunity in these for persons who wish to render a service to their home country and to the country at large. They must be prepared to keep up the work with the utmost regularity and care.

For some minutes after Kazan's stunned senses had become normal he lay motionless, watching Sandy McTriggar. Every bone in his body gave him pain. His eyes were closed and bleeding. His upper lip was smashed where the club had fallen. One eye was almost closed. Several times Sandy came near, much pleased at what he regarded as the good results of the beating. Each time he brought the club. The third time he poked it up from where he had dropped it in the sand. Kazan's strength had fairly returned to him now. He was no longer dizzy. The mist had cleared away from his eyes. Before him he saw once more his old enemy, man-man and the club. All of the wild ferocity of the wolf was in his eyes. Without reasoning he knew that Gray Wolf was gone, and that this Gray Wolf was accountable for her going. He knew that this man had also brought him his own hurt, and what he ascribed to the man he also attributed to the club. In his newer undertakings of things, born of freedom and fear, Kazan and club were one and inseparable. The man was not expecting a direct assault, and before he could raise his club or spring his jaws Kazan had landed full on his chest. The muzzle about Kazan's jaws saved him. Fange that would have torn his throat open snapped instead. Under the weight of the dog's body he fell back, as if struck down by a catapult.

THE NEW "CALL OF THE WILD"

KAZAN
By JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD.
AUTHOR OF PHILIP STEELE, THE DANGER TRAIL, etc.

CHAPTER XX.
"Got you, you old devil, didn't I?" he cried. "I'd got the other, too, if I'd had something besides this damned old relic."

He turned Kazan's head over with the butt of his gun, and the least of Kazan's head was in place to a sudden look of amazement. The first time he saw the collar about Kazan's neck.

"My Gawd, it ain't a wolf," he gasped. "It's a dog, Sandy McTriggar, a dog!"

CHAPTER XXII.
McTriggar dropped on his knees in the sand. The look of exultation was gone from his face. He twisted the collar about the dog's limp neck until he came to the worn plate, on which he could make out the faintly engraved letters K-A-Z-A-N.

He spelled the letters out one by one, and the look in his face was not of triumph, but of despair. He still disbelieved what he had seen and heard.

"A dog," he exclaimed again. "A dog, Sandy McTriggar, ain't a beauty!"

He rose to his feet and looked down on his victim. A pool of blood lay in the white sand at the end of Kazan's head. He had been shot through the heart. He was bent over to see where his bullet had struck. His inspection filled him with a new and greater interest. The heavy ball from the muzzle-loader had struck Kazan fairly on top of the head. It was a glancing blow that had not even broken the skull. Sandy had understood the quivering and twitching of Kazan's shoulders and legs. He had thought that they were the last muscular throes of death. But Kazan was not dying. He was only stunned, and would be on his feet in a few minutes. Sandy was a connoisseur of dogs—of dogs that had worn sledge traces. He had tried to shoot them two-thirds of his life. He could tell their age, their value, and a part of their history at a glance. In the snow he could tell the trail of a Mackenzie house—from that of a Malamute, and the track of an Eskimo dog from that of a Yukon husky. He looked at Kazan's feet. They were wolf feet, and he chuckled. Kazan was part wolf. He was big and powerful, and Sandy thought of the coming winter, and of the high prices that dogs would bring at Red Gog City. He went to the canoe and returned with a roll of stout moose-hide babiche. Then he sat down cross-legged in front of Kazan and began making a mule. He did this by plaiting babiche things in the same manner that one does in making the web of a snow-shoe. In 10 minutes he had the muzzle over Kazan's nose and fastened securely about his neck. To the dog's collar he then fastened a 10-foot rope of babiche. After that he sat back and waited for Kazan to come to life.

When Kazan first lifted his head he could not see. There was a red film before his eyes. But this passed away swiftly and he saw the man. His first instinct was to rise to his feet. Three times he fell back before he could stand up. Sandy was squatted over him, holding the end of the babiche and grinning. Kazan's fangs, gleamed back. He growled, and the crest along his spine lifted.

ing, which saved it from a hurricane. The flood and storm warnings of the weather bureau are the features of the service that save the most in life and property; but for its crop protection, bulletins are equally important. It gets out special publications for the cotton, corn and wheat regions, which let the farmers and ranchmen know approximately what they may expect for some days in advance. Railroads also make liberal use of the weather bureau service, especially in timing shipments of livestock and perishable goods. Any citizen may call upon the bureau for information about the weather. If you are going on a week's fishing trip, you have a right to ask your local forecaster for special information as to what kind of weather you will have by the way.

The basis of the bureau's forecasting service is a mass of climatological information which has been gathered for over a century. It is interesting to know that the greater part of this information has been collected, not by trained specialists, but by American citizens giving their services. Ours is really a volunteer weather bureau. For the bureau has only 200 meteorologists in observation about the country; but it has 5,000 volunteer observers. These are citizens who have shown themselves reliable and willing. They are provided by the bureau with maximum and minimum thermometers and with rain gauges, and they send in daily reports. These reports covering the whole United States, county by county, and continued for long periods, are the most valuable work of the weather bureau, and upon that its efficiency is largely based.

Oldest Volunteer.
The oldest volunteer weather observer now working for the bureau is Jesse Green of Westchester, Pa., who is 93 years old, and has been observing in his reports with great regularity for 62 years. The longest continuous weather record is that from New Bedford, Mass., which has been kept ever since 1811. It was kept by the Rodman family, father and son, from that date until 1905 and has been kept since then by C. H. Adams.

The weather bureau desires an observer in every county in the United States, but many of the sparsely settled counties of the west are not represented. There is an opportunity in these for persons who wish to render a service to their home country and to the country at large. They must be prepared to keep up the work with the utmost regularity and care.

In his newer undertakings of things, born of freedom and fear, Kazan and club were one and inseparable. The man was not expecting a direct assault, and before he could raise his club or spring his jaws Kazan had landed full on his chest. The muzzle about Kazan's jaws saved him. Fange that would have torn his throat open snapped instead. Under the weight of the dog's body he fell back, as if struck down by a catapult.

As quick as a cat he was on his feet again, with the end of the babiche twisted several times about his hand. Kazan leaped again, and this time he was met by a furious swing of the club. It smashed against his shoulder, and sent him down in the sand. Before he could recover Sandy was upon him, with all the fury of a man. He shortened the babiche by twisting it again and again about his hand, and the club rose and fell with the skill and strength of one long accustomed to its use. The first blows served only to add to Kazan's hatred of man, and the ferocity and fearlessness of his attacks. Again and again he leaped into the air, and the club fell upon him with a force that threatened to break his bones. There was a hard look about Sandy's cruel mouth. He had never known a dog like this before, and he was a bit nervous, even with Kazan muzzled.

Three times Kazan's fangs would have sunk deep in his flesh had he been free for the babiche. And if the thought about his jaws should slip, or break—

Sandy followed up the thought with a smashing blow that landed on Kazan's head, and once more the old battering fell upon him. Sandy's breath was coming in quick gasps. He was almost winded. Not until the club slipped from his hand did he realize how desperate the situation had been. He had stung him from the blow that had stunned him. Sandy examined the muzzle and strengthened it by adding another babiche thong. Then he dragged Kazan to a log that high water had thrown up on the shore a few days away, and made the end of the babiche rope fast to a dead snag. After that he pulled the dog high up on the sand, and began to prepare camp for the night.

EAST HIGH BOYS HEAR U. S. CALL

At Least a Dozen Plan to Leave Studies to Enlist in Nation's Farm Food Work.

OPEN LABOR HEADQUARTERS

By next Monday at least a dozen East Aurora high school boys expect to be enlisted in the big work of producing farm foodstuffs in the great war campaign.

Already seven of them have signed up with farmers living near Aurora and will leave their school studies for work on the farm. In accordance with President Wilson's proclamation, the high school boys will be given credit for their farm work by the board of education just as the they remained in school.

Have Already Joined.
The following have already joined the farming corps: Orrin Larrett, Harry Baker, Elmer Seagrist, Donald Ziegler, Orla Quisenberry, Roy Kappes and Alfred Day. A large number of others are thinking of enlisting as soon as they can find places.

Superintendent Bardwell wants all farmers who can use these boys on the farm to communicate with him or with Principal Waldo of the high school. This can be done either thru the mail or by calling either of them on the telephone. The idea is that the boys are willing to go onto the farms now or at a later date when there will be a greater demand to gather in the harvest. Even the local farmers do not have work for the boys now, if they will notify the two school heads arrangements can be made for the boys to go onto the farms within a few weeks and work during the summer and into the early fall.

MANY PERSONS KILLED IN ITALIAN EARTHQUAKE

London, April 27.—A violent earthquake in Tuscany and Umbria is reported in a Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company to have occurred Thursday morning. Many persons are reported killed at Monterchi, near Arezzo, the capital of the province of that name. Considerable material damage is also reported.

The province of Umbria is directly north of the province of Abruzzo Ultra II, which was devastated by the tremendous earthquake of Jan. 13, 1915. In this disaster 24,263 people lost their lives and 50 towns and villages were wiped out.

Societies and Clubs

Friday
The Altar and Rosary society of St. Mary's church will give a card party in the school hall Friday evening, April 27. The women hope every family in the parish will be represented with their friends.

NEW CITY WELL YIELD LARGEST

Test Shows Tube Gives Average of 1,086 Gallons to the Minute.

SUPPLY NOT NEEDED NOW

The new city well No. 8, recently completed in the rear of the city hall, will supply 1,086 gallons per minute and is the best well the city has. W. E. Barclay, superintendent of the light and water department, made this announcement today after a three-day test of the well.

Dr. George B. Schwachtgen, city health commissioner and chemist, has finished an analysis of samples of water taken from the well. His report to Superintendent Barclay and the board of public works shows the water to be of the same high grade as that obtained from the other city wells. No contamination or salt was found.

Ready to Be Connected.
In the event of a big fire the pumps can be started at a moment's notice and the pressure in the mains increased. It is not probable that the well will be needed regularly until hot weather.

During the test of the well at one time water was being thrown out at the rate of 1,224 gallons a minute. Superintendent Barclay and Chief Engineer Bodinson of the American Well Works have figured that the average supply of the well when the pumps are connected with the mains and operating against a 70-pound pressure, will be 1,086 gallons per minute.

After the pump had been operated for 24 hours without a stop inspection showed that the head of the well was still up above the bottom of the submerged portion of the pump. The fact that there was no vacuum after a 24-hour test indicates that there is an unlimited supply of water in the well.

The well is the largest well of the kind which has ever been completed in Illinois. It is 2,350 feet deep and has a 30-inch bore at the top and 18 inches at the bottom. A 20-inch casing extends down into the well for a distance of 260 feet.

S. B. Geiger, of Chicago, was the well drilling contractor while all of the pumping machinery was purchased from the American Well Works.

The electrical equipment controlling and driving the pump, was put in by the Delta Electric company of this city.

The average supply at No. 7 well in South River street, is 840 gallons a minute and No. 6, in Talma street, 730 gallons a minute.

His Mother Says—"When the Children are Croupy I Just Apply a Good Application of Vick's VapoRub Salve at Bedtime, and Go to Sleep, Sure that the Little Ones Will Be All Right."

EDMUND RUSSELL SMITH

Mrs. M. E. Smith, 230 Wood Street, Johnstown, Pa., is one of the many mothers who have found the Southern remedy—Vick's VapoRub Salve, much better than internal medicines. Mrs. Smith writes: "I find your VapoRub the finest remedy for croup and colds that I have ever used, and now we would not be without it, as we have two children and they are both subject to croup. I use VapoRub as a 'witch' in time—put on an application at night—then go to bed and rest assured that the little ones are all right for the night."

In the South Vick's VapoRub is universally used as the "Body-guard" in the home against all forms of cold troubles, from head or chest colds, sore throat, bronchitis, down to deep chest colds or incipient pneumonia. It is applied externally—it is therefore perfectly harmless—and relieves by inhalation as a vapor and by absorption through the skin.

Three sizes, 25c, 50c, or $1.00. At all druggists.

POOR BASEBALL BEATS CUBS 6 TO 4

Shuffling Phil Douglas Tried Come Back and Is Failure.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 27.—Because they played a lot of backwoods Tennessee baseball yesterday the Cubs were repud and thrown in the final and deciding game of the series with the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 4. Shuffling Phil Douglas, who tried to come back and get revenge for the opening day defeat, perished in playing the Tennessee cry of baseball.

The least the Cubs could have had would have been a tie at the end of nine innings had not Phil declined to back up play during the game. A fellow might back up a play 100 times during the season and be of no use 99 times, but in the big leagues he is supposed to back 'em up.

WHITE HOSE SHUT OUT BY INDIANS

Ray Schalk Drops Third Strike and Cleveland Scores
Two Runs.

Faber Holds Opponents to Five Hits,
but Is Given Poor Support.

Ray Schalk dropped a third strike in the first inning yesterday and the White Hose was shut out by the Cleveland Indians. From then on everything broke the wrong way and the Cleveland Indians skunked the Sox, 2 to 0. The Sox got seven hits and the naps two runs.

Outside of the opening round the third combat of the Indian series was as featureless as a flat plain. The White Hose outplayed the Cleveland Indians, but could not overcome the two run lead handed the visitors in the opener.

Bagby was tapped for seven safeties, while Faber held the Indians to five, but the former's support was much superior to that of the home pitcher. Bagby also was steady, leading only one pass to four handed out to Faber.

RED AND BLUE AT ELGIN

The track teams of East and West High schools open their conference schedules tomorrow, the Red and Blue journeying to Joliet and the Red and Blue going to Elgin. The Joliet meet will be the inaugural event of the season for East High.

Both teams have a good chance to win, especially East High, as the Red and Blue team should make some fast killing for Joliet on the track. Pauly Field is also again among the athletes and is liable to pick up several points in the course of the afternoon.

With Capt. Elgie Rex, Cyril Morrissey and Leslie Corwin in the field events and some good men backing them up, East High should make some fast killing for Joliet on the track. Pauly Field is also again among the athletes and is liable to pick up several points in the course of the afternoon.

The image is a high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, likely a book cover or endpaper. A prominent vertical crease or fold line runs down the center of the frame. The surface is covered in fine, dark, irregular lines and patterns, giving it a grainy, aged appearance. The lighting is dramatic, with deep shadows and bright highlights that emphasize the texture and the central fold.

CIGRAND ASSAILS CORNER ON FLAGS

Batavian, President of National Association, Declares Makers Seek Excessive Profits.

Suggests That Persons Who Observe Practice Write Him to Aid in Demanding Congress Act.

"From every section of the country, comes the complaint, that American flags have been increased in price to such an enormous extent as to practically bar the poor people from indulging in liberal decoration." This statement was made today by Dr. B. J. Cigrand of Batavia, president of the American Flag Day association. Dr. Cigrand suggested that the house of representatives investigate this supposed "corner on flags" and determine who the people are who are preventing the flag from being purchased at a reasonable price. In fact, Dr. Cigrand said that, inasmuch as the munition plants, packing houses and automobile factories have offered the government their plants, why not ask that the United States operate and control that division of the cloth manufacturing industries which make the American flags?

"This," he said, "would assure us of the double comfort of having not only flags heretically correct, but flags at reasonable and non-profitable prices."

"But, if this cannot be done, let us urge that the flags be properly formed—that the red be not maroon, and that the blue copenhagen blue, and that the stars be properly placed on the flags, and not up-side-down."

"Merchants in various parts of the country are making fabulous profits on the sale of flags; that any corporation, firm or individual making a legal interest above all expenses, should be willing to show a patriotic sentiment towards the country's flag, and not exploit the colors, simply to make 'big profits.'"

"All persons who are interested in having congress investigate the supply and price of American flags, and all firms or individuals who, beginning with May 1 are willing to mark down the price on flags, to be within the 10 per cent profit limit, please write to Dr. B. J. Cigrand, Batavia, Ill., so some action may be brought about to protect the natural and current display of the flag. A corner on flags would be akin to a corner on United States stamps—we need both!"

FORMER MOTHER-IN-LAW SUES HIM FOR HER KEEP

Mrs. Mary Schuchter has started suit in the court of Police Magistrate Barlow for $67.50 against her former son-in-law, John Feifer, 557 Aurora avenue. She charges that she, as a mother-in-law, has been kept in the house since Feifer put her out of the house. Feifer brought Mrs. Schuchter from Austria to this country with her daughter, his first wife, in April, 1914. Under the immigration laws he was compelled to sign a bond agreeing to see to her support. The first wife died and Feifer married again. Then he ceased to support his first mother-in-law. Attorney Albert Kelley, representing Mrs. Schuchter, will also sue Feifer in the federal court. The case in Magistrate Barlow's court is set for next Tuesday.

AT N. AURORA CHURCH

The regular choir practice will be held at the North Aurora church tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock the pastor, the Rev. James H. Hart, will conduct communion services and deliver his farewell sermon. He leaves about May 1 with the Northwestern university Y. M. C. A. unit for service at the European war front.

Sunday evening the North Aurora chorus at 7 o'clock will render Scripps' famous cantata, "A Joyful Thanksgiving." An elaborate program has been prepared and the public is invited.

Owing to the sudden illness of the pastor, the farewell reception planned for this evening has been postponed indefinitely.

We're Ready to Save You Money On Refrigerators

That Will Save You Money on Your Ice Bills

Leath's have exclusive sale of the well known and widely advertised Gurney Refrigerators—the Refrigerator that is better in construction and thoroughly sanitary. Every Gurney Refrigerator has the "cold air draft" feature. When the ice is put into the ice compartment and the door closed, a downward and upward air circulation immediately starts. The air passes over the ice, cools and drops thru the air passages to the bottom where it absorbs the heat and impurities from the food and rises on the other side—thus eliminating any orders or dampness.

Construction

The Gurney Refrigerators are made of hard wood, tough and fibrous, finished golden oak, lined with heavy galvanized steel sheets, double seamed, making them water tight. These sheets are covered with three coats of white enamel, making the refrigerator sanitary and easy to keep clean. They are fitted with wire shelves which can be adjusted, removable drainage system which is easily cleaned and nickel trimmings.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

We have sizes and styles for every home—each one being an economical user of ice. You have our assurance that every Refrigerator is exactly as represented and will give absolute satisfaction. They are thoroughly sanitary, each box being carefully inspected and tested by experts before leaving the factory—all parts are removable for cleaning. You will make no mistake in selecting a Gurney Refrigerator.

A Saving of 15 to 20% If Bought Saturday

This Saturday Sale offers a splendid opportunity for everyone to select a Refrigerator at a saving of 10 to 20 per cent. Our carload purchases make this price reduction possible.

The Enemy of Uric Acid is Anuric

(By L. H. SMITH, M. D.)

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys. The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depression, drowsiness, irritability, headache, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain a small amount of Anuric, which is dispensed by most every druggist. Anuric (double strength) is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more potent than little and many find that Anuric dissolves uric acid as water does sugar. People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just like the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy, and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for Anuric which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in the land.—Advertisement.

Men Welcome Mother's Friend

The husband is often worried over the condition of his wife during her period of expectancy. The thought that he is helpless to relieve her physical suffering and discomfort causes him great distress. "Mother's Friend" is a safe external lubricant which penetrates to the fine network of nerves beneath the skin of the abdomen. It has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. If husbands will secure for the expectant mother a bottle of "Mother's Friend" from their druggist, they will find that they have aided to a very great degree in relieving much of the discomfort during pregnancy and pain at the crisis. The mother should apply "Mother's Friend" every night and morning, right up until the time of giving birth to the child. By aiding nature in its pre-natal work the mother will experience much less pain. Every mother should have the true book prepared by "Mother's Friend." It concerns her health and well-being during and after the crisis. Write to Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. D, 258 Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today.

Heals Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or $1 for large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching, burning, and all other skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and soothes the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save further distress. The E. W. Ross Co., Cleveland, O.

M. G. Harnish Declares Tanlac Proved Right What He Was Looking For.

WARMLY PRAISES MEDICINE

Freeport, Ill., April 27.—If there is a man in Freeport who is widely known, well liked and highly respected it is M. G. Harnish, cigar salesman who resides at 185 Galena street. Mr. Harnish has been a resident of Freeport for the past thirty years and his pleasant personality and fine character has won him innumerable friends. Here is what he had to say of Tanlac on April 11. "Owing to my business connections I was unable to eat regularly and this finally resulted in my stomach becoming in very bad condition. It had been this way for some time. My food didn't agree with me and I didn't digest properly. Gas formations, belching and bloating would invariably annoy me following each meal. Muscular rheumatism bothered me and I felt all in most of the time. "Realizing that I needed a good tonic I decided to try Tanlac because it was so highly recommended. Well, six people are telling me that Tanlac is one of the world of good and I certainly know it. I can eat anything without distress afterwards. The rheumatism in my muscles has been relieved. In fact, I feel better in every respect. Tanlac has done me so much good that I wanted others to know about it."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, loss of appetite, nervousness and the like. Tanlac is being explained and introduced in Aurora at The Public Drug Store, New York and Broadway, and in Geneva at Johnson's Drug Store.

HARBOR OF LISBON STRONGLY GUARDED

Double Line of Destroyers Covers Entrance of Port—Organizers Lying Just Outside.

German Submarines Keep Constant Vigil. Mysteriously Provided and Supplied.

(By Associated Press Licensed Wire.)

Lisbon, Portugal, April 27.—The harbor of Lisbon has taken on a distinctly naval aspect since Portugal entered the ranks of the entente allies. Off Commercial square, which corresponds with the Battery in New York, two long lines of destroyers have been drawn up clear across the broad entrance of the Tagus. The long black hulls of the destroyers are so close together that at half-tide they swing at anchor broadside toward the sea, almost touching, and presenting a double line of batteries pointing off toward the German submarines lurking along the coast.

But Lisbon feels secure against an enemy attack by sea, for besides the double lines of destroyers, ready for defense or quick sortie, there are cruiser and gunboats with steam up, and back of them the big land batteries on both banks of the Tagus, rising on high terraces and presenting a semi-circle of massive stone fronts topped with lines of heavy guns. And besides these land and sea defenses, there is the feeling that the British fleet is not far off and presents a pretty solid barrier against the German fleet bottled up in the Kiel canal.

When the British naval commission visited here a short time ago still another naval defense was devised and has since been put into execution. This is a heavy steel net extending clear across the channel leading from Lisbon to the sea. This can be lowered at stated intervals for the passage of commercial traffic. But when in position it is not only a bar to submarines, but any which venture near it are likely to be caught and held in its meshes.

U-Boats Keep Vigil.

There are two German submarines which appear to be keeping a pretty constant vigil of the nearby coast. How they are provisioned and equipped is a mystery. They have not done much damage to large merchant ships, but give their special attention to the smaller craft and the fishing fleets. It has practically put an end to the coasting trade, and a good share of the trade of Oporto has been stopped. The shipping to England and France is also greatly curtailed. This is adding to England's food danger, for much of her fruits and vegetables and most of her wine was drawn from Portugal.

Portugal is feeling the pinch also. In being cut off from a supply of coal from the Cardiff coal mines, and in having its supplies of fish cut off. Coal has gone up to $17 and $18 a ton, and is so scarce it cannot be obtained at any price. The normal price is about $7 a ton. Besides the derangement of domestic heating and cooking, and the misery caused to the poor, the lack of coal is proving a serious menace to factories, railroads, tramways, and the heating and lighting of public places, hotels and theaters. The government has sought to remedy the situation by reducing the lights in the streets, extinguishing all lighting at an early hour, and advancing the legal time by one hour so that people will get up earlier and live more in the daylight.

With a long coast Portugal has always had such an abundance of fish as to feel proof against any lack of meat and other foods. But with the submarines stopping fishing, the normal supply of fish has suddenly been stopped, and the price has doubled and trebled, until the poor are unable to get the usual supply of fish on which they depended. Four fishing boats were sunk within the last week, one fisherman being killed and three injured.

The war is making itself felt in many other ways. Most of the young men have been called into military service, as the small peace of fishing boats has now been increased to a war footing of several hundred thousand men, including about 60,000 men in the western fighting front, as well as more to Portuguese East Africa, and a large reserve for home defense and recruiting the forces at the front. The streets of the cities and towns are now crowded with soldiers, and at the railway stations one sees long lines of freight cars loaded with light field guns and military equipment.

In the agricultural sections, also, the war is showing itself in the absence of men and the increased number of women doing the farm work. A side of a thousand miles thru the farm country, with the spring ploughing and planting at its height, not a man was seen in the fields, but scores of women were in the furrows following the plough and doing the other heavy work. This is not unusual in Portugal, but war has made it universal.

NUMBER SEVEN GUARD ENGLAND'S HEALTH

(By Associated Press Licensed Wire.) London, April 27.—Major Walcott Astor, member of the house of commons for Plymouth, writes the preface to a report which has just been issued by a committee of unionist members of parliament, appealing for a reform in the present methods of health administration in England.

The responsibility for public health, he says, is at present divided among a bewildering variety of government departments and local bodies. "What is in fact everybody's business is some particular aspect, and nobody's business as a general problem. Consequently, progress is fragmentary and haphazard, and there is no steady momentum or development such as a definite ministry of health would supply. Scandalous delays have occurred in dealing with problems of admitted urgency."

He criticizes also the provisions in England for securing industrial health among factory workers. The "experimental science of industrial fatigue" he says, is far less appreciated in English factories than in those of America and Germany.

ABSENT VOTERS' BILL

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—An absent voters' bill to permit any qualified voter to vote by mail if forced to be away from his county on election or primary day was passed by the senate today. Senator Dailey of Peoria, author of the bill, gave notice that a special bill to apply to members of military organizations and to permit voting by companies was being drawn by the legislative reference bureau and would be introduced probably next week.

GERMAN WAR HEAD ADMITS TROOPS ARE DISCOURAGED

Copenhagen, April 27, via London.—General von Stein, German minister of war, admitted during a discussion of military affairs by the reichstag committee yesterday that field post letters from soldiers at the front showed a certain amount of discouragement. This, however, was only a passing sentiment, he explained, and in general the spirit of the troops was good.

Severe Cough Yields to Duffy's

The value of Duffy's as a remedy for coughs and colds has been proved many times. Mr. Fossdick contracted a severe cold which did not respond to treatment until he used Duffy's with good results.

"Being suburban manager of the firm of Fossdick & Scott, Real Estate and Insurance, my work often takes me out in severe weather to show farm and suburban property. While at Huntington, N. Y., early in December, I contracted a severe cold. A friend recommended Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and after using a few bottles, taking a tablespoonful in water four times a day, my cough disappeared and I attribute my good health to taking your wonderful preparation."—(Signed) M. La Roy Fossdick, 378 Fulton St., Jamaica, N. Y.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

possesses unique health promoting qualities. The supreme test of its value lies in the fact that it invigorates the stomach, which makes it a tonic that arouses to renewed activity the exhausted forces of the human organism, improves the appetite, aids digestion, helps build up the blood, and gives fresh vigor to the system.

"Get Duffy's and Keep Well"

Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY. Beware of imitations. NOTE—Get Duffy's from your local druggist, grocer or dealer, $1.00 per bottle. If he cannot supply you, write us. Send for metal household book—let free.

DANISH WOMAN REGAINS HEALTH

Tells Everybody what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Her.

Chicago, Ill.—"It gives me great pleasure to let others know that I improved in health with the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after taking two bottles I am entirely well. Before taking it I could not do any kind of work without a pain in my back and I suffered so much from inflammation. I had headaches, was always tired and no appetite. Words cannot express my gratitude for the good your medicine has done me, and thank me to my family. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women suffering from female troubles, particularly to Danish women."—Mrs. Meta Damgaard-Matsen, 2127 Kimball Ave., Chicago, Ill.

It is positively true that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration. Adv.

MISS RANKIN TOLD TO VOTE FOR DRAFT

Montana Congresswoman, Uncertain, Gets Quick Instructions from Her Constituents.

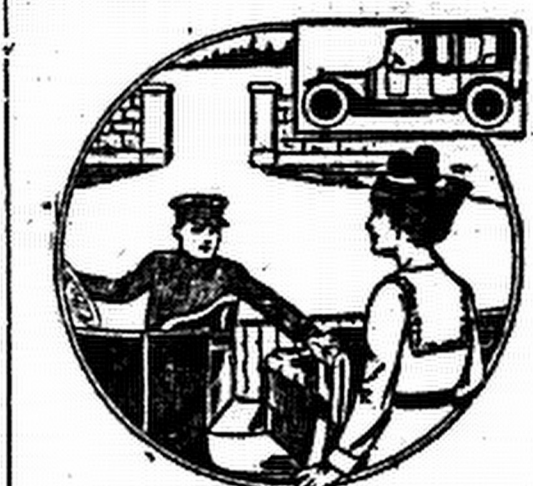

Had Wired Home That She Had Heard of No One in House Who Favored Conscription.

(By Associated Press Local Wire.) Missoula, Mont., April 27.—"Hamilton overwhelmingly favors conscription as only fair method for democracy. Ask you and other representatives of Montana to stand firmly by the president in his plans, if need be alone."

So the Hamilton chamber of commerce today answered a telegram received from Representative Jeanette Rankin, which said:

"I have heard of no one in the house who is supporting the president's conscription bill. Do you wish me to stand alone for this?" "Stand alone, if you have to," the Rotary and Pan-Hellenic clubs of Butte wired Miss Rankin.

A Sale Without Precedent

The Absorption Sale of Walk-Overs

(By JOE REISING)

In all my experience as a shoe merchant, I have never known conditions of the market to be quite as complicated as they are this very day. You are perhaps quite as well informed on the subject as I am, but the big sale of Walk-Over shoes, the opportunity which has been accidentally brought forward at a critical period and given relief to needy buyers in these momentous times, warrants particular mention.

Right now—this very day and while the sale lasts—you can buy that famous brand of shoes known as Walk-Overs—a shoe you have come to know from childhood as only a strictly high quality product, for less money than I would have to pay to replace the same goods.

I know, this may sound ridiculous under the circumstances, but hardly so when you consider that I bought out the Walk-Over store with a stock half as large as my original one, and now it's up to me to unload. I bought these shoes, all of them, at a price that in turn enables me to quote these savings to you and my customers of old.

It is an established and recognized fact that any merchant can carry too much stock, and I don't propose to find my shelves and cellar loaded when they should be fairly clean—at the end of the season.

Stop and think! Consider just for one moment what this sale affords you. For every member of the family, the best shoes. And just when you need them, no end of the latest styles in oxfords and slippers.

You may figure that $1.45 is all you can afford to pay for a pair of shoes; if so, come, you'll find what you want. Or at $1.95, $2.45, $2.95, $3.95 or more, we'll show you the truly greatest bargains in years.

In short, the cost of footwear—good, dependable shoes, need not work an apparent hardship, by nature of increased prices, to any family; and it will not, positively not, to those who attend this sale.

All I can do is to advise you to buy early and liberally. I feel that I've done my part.

BATAVIA CADETS TO GET UNIFORMS

Military Association of City Raises Money to Equip Company by Memorial Day.

Seventy-four Young Soldiers to Be Measured for Suits Next Monday Afternoon.

Batavia, April 27.—The Batavia Military Association met last evening at the high school and a report from the finance committee was that the greater portion of the fund being raised for purchasing uniforms for the high school cadets has already been subscribed for. The 74 boys of the school company will have their equipment ready to make their initial appearance in the parade Decoration day. The Boy Scouts, however, will not have their suits on that day and will soon be completely equipped but it will be impossible to have their uniforms for Decoration day.

It was arranged last night that the committee on uniforms, Robert Lewis, John Glass and G. H. Burnett, attend to having a tailor take measurements and select materials at once. The campaign for the remainder of the money needed to defray the expenses of the boys' suits will close at 8 o'clock Monday evening, April 30. The organization, officers and committees will meet that night in Room 10, at the high school to make final reports. Men representing the various wards and to whom the money can be given are: George Keller, Mayor J. V. Burton, Herman Shaw and Robert Lewis. When funds have been raised the names of donors will be published together with a financial summary. The secretary was instructed to draft a letter to be addressed to all lodges so that all can contribute to the patriotic work. The Batavia Military Association submits to the public the names of the cadets tomorrow.

The Western Uniform company has been awarded the contract and their Monday afternoon to take measurements. They will make deliveries May 25. It is promised. The officers chosen last evening were: President, Dr. B. H. Cramer; vice president, J. V. Burton; secretary, J. D. Laek; assistant secretary, L. L. Hoover; treasurer, D. B. Andrus; and the following executive committee: R. C. Hollister, Dr. F. H. Daniels, Dr. J. C. West, H. T. Windsor; legislative committee: H. W. Shaw, George Burnett and the Rev. T. M. Hixson.

Pythias House Renovation.
W. H. Reaney was chosen secretary and treasurer at the district convention of the Knights and Pythias held at Geneva yesterday. The next meeting of the district will be held in the fall at Aurora.

Committee to Meet.
The members of the court house committee of supervisors will have a meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Funeral of James O'Hara.
The funeral of James O'Hara was held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. John's church. The Rev. Daniel LaHane, pastor of that church officiated and the burial took place in West Batavia cemetery.

Dead Man Identified.
The North-Western trucker who was killed sometime Wednesday night are held at the R. C. Hollister undertaking parlors waiting identification. The chief of police is investigating the case and is making every effort to identify the man and discover whether he was murdered or was killed by a train.

Social and Personal.
The Eastern Star chapter will give a May party next Thursday evening at Moose hall. The committee has decided to have an old fashioned dance.

All members of the Rock City lodge, No. 113, L. O. E. F. will meet at the hall Sunday morning to attend the anniversary service at the Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock. Visiting brothers are invited to join.

Mrs. Blanch Morgenthaler entertained the Luncheon club at her home yesterday. The women played auction bridge during the afternoon and honors were awarded Mrs. Irene Hyde and Mrs. E. B. Smith.

A meeting of Rowena lodge, K. of P. this evening a debate will be enjoyed. This will be followed by a smoker and the usual military drill by the "rookies." One candidate for membership is to be elected this evening. All members should make an effort to attend.

The Women's club will have a luncheon at the home of Mrs. David Sperry Tuesday, May 1. All members planning to attend are asked to notify Mrs. George Keller, chairman of the luncheon day committee.

Mrs. Hooper of Chicago, who has been visiting Mrs. J. B. Buck was surprised last evening by a number of friends. Mrs. Hooper came from Chicago and the guests included friends from St. Charles and Geneva as well as Batavia people. The evening passed in a social manner. Mrs. Hooper is president of the missionary congress of Chicago and has a host of friends in this city.

The Camp Fire girls will hold a food sale in the VanNortwick building.

GENEVA PYTHIANS HOSTS TO DISTRICT

Convention Yesterday Attracts 200 Members of Order—Parade in the Evening.

Aurora Given Presidency of Organization and Next Annual Convention.

Geneva, Ill., April 27.—The district convention of the Knights of Pythias held yesterday at Geneva, was a great success. More than 200 K. of P. members attended.

The following officers were elected: President—Atty. Fred Shearer, Aurora. Vice president—George Bartlett, Malta. Secretary-treasurer—William Reaney, Batavia.

Aurora was awarded the next convention. A feature of the convention was the street parade, headed by the Batavia Bugle and Drum corps. After the parade the marchers went to the city auditorium where the Lawndale, Chicago lodge, conferred degrees work on several candidates.

Grand Chancellor John Reeve of Jacksonville, the superintendent of the K. of P. home at Decatur, and other state officers attended the convention. During the afternoon the visitors were shown thru the Geneva Girls' Home, Riverbank Villa, the St. Charles Boys' Home, Moonheart and other show places of the county.

United as Aples.
Did German spies visit Geneva last February? Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, who with their small child in a covered car, passed thru Geneva February 19, walking towards San Francisco, have been arrested at Omaha, charged with conspiracy to aid the German government.

The report states that Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton had in their possession many maps and photographs of the principal bridges and other important items along the route, besides letters and valuable military information. These were carefully concealed under a false bottom in the trunk which carried the child. The little child, attired in a bearskin costume, attracted much attention as the trio passed thru Geneva.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE FOR ST. CHARLES

Public Schools to Adopt Study This Coming School Year, Board Member Announces.

Delay Caused Only by Lack of Finance—$20,000 Estimated Grade School Addition.

St. Charles, Ill., April 27.—Domestic science will be taught in the St. Charles schools next year, E. T. Casady, a school board member announced today.

The school board members have been for some time considering inaugurating domestic science course in the schools and the matter of finance alone has caused the delay, it was said.

Frank Gray of St. Charles has been appointed architect for the contemplated eight-room addition to be built on the east grade school this coming year.

It will be necessary to hold a special election to give the voters a chance to decide for or against a necessary bond issue of about $20,000 to cover the cost, it was announced today.

Held to Grand Jury.
Arthur King, colored, charged with assault with deadly weapon, hitting Shirley Moses, colored, on the head with a brick—was given a preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice C. L. Blanchard and was ordered held to await the action of the next grand jury. His bonds were fixed at $500 and as he could not furnish surety he was taken to the county jail.

Plan for Recruitment.
The following communication has been received from a St. Charles merchant:

"Our Heavenly Father, give us today our daily pap, and don't let us hide behind women's skirts and give us spirit and bravery to be real American men. Go to the recruiting office and enlist, so we may protect our homes and not be cowards."

Louis Rockwell, trustee of the C. E. Robertson drug store stock after Mr. Robertson was declared a bankrupt, won his suit in the county court yesterday, to compel the Peter VanShank company of Chicago to return goods valued at $12.47 or pay action.

Atty. Hugh Blair represented Trustee Rockwell. A jury in the county court after being out one-half hour, returned a verdict in favor of Trustee Rockwell for $12.47 and costs. The VanShank company must return the goods valued at $12.47 or pay action.

The VanShank company, a party attorney asked for a new trial. The contention of Trustee Rockwell in this matter was that the VanShank company, by getting the goods from the store a few days before the bankruptcy action, became a preferred creditor. Mr. Robertson died soon after he was adjudged a bankrupt.

Social and Personal.
Carl Knepler, a patient in the St. Joseph hospital, Aurora, where he underwent a recent operation, was reported improved today.

The P. L. O. C. club was entertained at Elgin last evening by Mrs. Theo Fischer.

City Marshal Views Remains.
City Marshal W. H. Miller was at Batavia today viewing the body of the unidentified man found dead Wednesday night between Batavia and Moonheart, and who is believed to have been murdered.

School Chemistry.
The high school chemistry class under Professor Frazier a few days ago gave a very interesting and instructive program on the subject of chemistry in modern industry. The topics presented showed in a very striking way the fundamental part chemistry plays in the industrial world.

The topics presented were: "History of Potassium," Alice Peterson. "Explosive and Potassium Compounds," Kent Swaby. "Medicinal Potassium Compounds," Frank Devlin. "Manufacture of Matches," Frances Paschal. "Potassium and Glass Manufacture," Bertha Johnson. "Potassium Compounds as Disinfectants," Dorcas Pike. "The Cyanide of Potassium," Gladys Hallberg. "The Potash Problem," Russell Terrell. "Kelp, the Plant," Marie Thornton. "Harvesting Kelp," George Duerr. "Present Development of Kelp Industry," Reinhold Olson. "Banning Stalks, a Source of Potash," Julia Raabe. "Potash from Brine," Erna Nielsen. "Alumina, a Profitable Source," Theresa Nullen. "Feldspar and Potassium Production," Bertha Kriketzel.

Proper reverence for aged people is rare, and the chances are it always was human nature being what the same now as it was when Adam left the garden and went forth to see the widespread world.

News in Brief

Dr. L. W. Howard, eye, ear, nose and throat. Coulter block.

More Trouble for Larson.—George Larson, former real estate man who was arrested two weeks ago on a charge of passing bad checks, is in jail now is to be arrested for non-payment of a bond bill of $7.25 at the Riverside hotel unless he shows up tomorrow to answer the charge of confidence game. He was released under $1,000 bond a week ago and has failed to appear for his hearing or to settle with the saloonkeeper. He cashed one check for $40 on Archie Blakesley, three for a total of $15 on Charles Hassett and one for $10 on Jacob Pempa. In all it will cost Larson $144.85 to settle.

Notice to Water Consumers.—The Board of Public Works desires to notify water users that all water consumers now delinquent in the payment of water bills will be denied the use of city water service after Tuesday, May 1, 1917, providing the bills remain unpaid.—BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Circuit Court Monday.—The circuit court at Geneva will be in session again next Monday.

Dance Tomorrow.—Night—Zouave hall—latest songs and dances by professional dancers and singers from Chicago.

Complaints Crossing Is Blocked.—Complaints have been made to the police that the River street crossing of the Burlington railroad is being frequently blocked by long freight trains. Aid Michael Smith of the Second ward yesterday caused the arrest of one crew for blocking the crossing. No action has been taken against the crew or the railroad company.

Shanty Broken Into.—Division Superintendent Curtis of the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago railroad today complained to the police that the switch shanty at the corner of Spring street and Broadway has been broken into several nights, each time after 11:30 o'clock. The flagman remains at the shanty until that hour. The police believe that tramps have been sleeping in the building.

In Wrong Flat Arrested.—Fred Knepler, 37 years old, a laborer who says his home is in New York, got into last night and at 9 o'clock walked into the apartment of F. W. Steichen on the second floor of the building at 61 North Broadway. He made insulting remarks to Mrs. Steichen. It is claimed, and she called her husband, who was down stairs. Knepler was arrested. In police court this morning he said he was looking for a room and got into the wrong flat. He was fined $5 and costs.

Vegetable Day Tomorrow.—Home grown vegetables of all kinds will be offered for sale by farmers at the city market in North River street tomorrow morning. The price of potatoes also promises to be lower. Marketmaster Albert Fauth said today.

Any Immigrants Should Enlist.—Ben Duacker, Belgian-American of St. Charles, has enlisted in the United States army. He said, "The first person who should enlist in the United States army are the immigrants, as they have received the greatest benefits from this country."

To Beautify Cemetery.—The new Riverside cemetery at Montgomery is to be elaborately improved and beautified this spring on the park plan. James A. Young is in charge of the work and the Aurora Nurseries company has the contract to set out about 15,000 shrubs and evergreens.

No Advertising on Flags.—Some Kane county banks which have been distributing small American flags to be worn on lapels have been instructed. It is said, that they must not distribute any more flags containing advertising matter. Violators of the rule may be demanded guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both.

DESCENDANT OF F. S. KEY
ENLISTS IN THE MARINES

HIS ANCESTOR WROTE "STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

Baltimore, Md., April 27.—Following in the footsteps of his illustrious ancestor, Francis Deuber, a direct descendant of Francis Scott Key, the author of "The Star Spangled Banner," is now serving his country in the arm of our national defense which will be "First to Fight"—the marine corps.

Private Deuber's mother is a great grand-daughter of the author of our national anthem, on the maternal side. Deuber's resemblance to his renowned ancestor is said to be so noticeable that many of those who have seen the original Francis Scott Key picture have commented upon the remarkable likeness.

THE VALUE OF FOODS

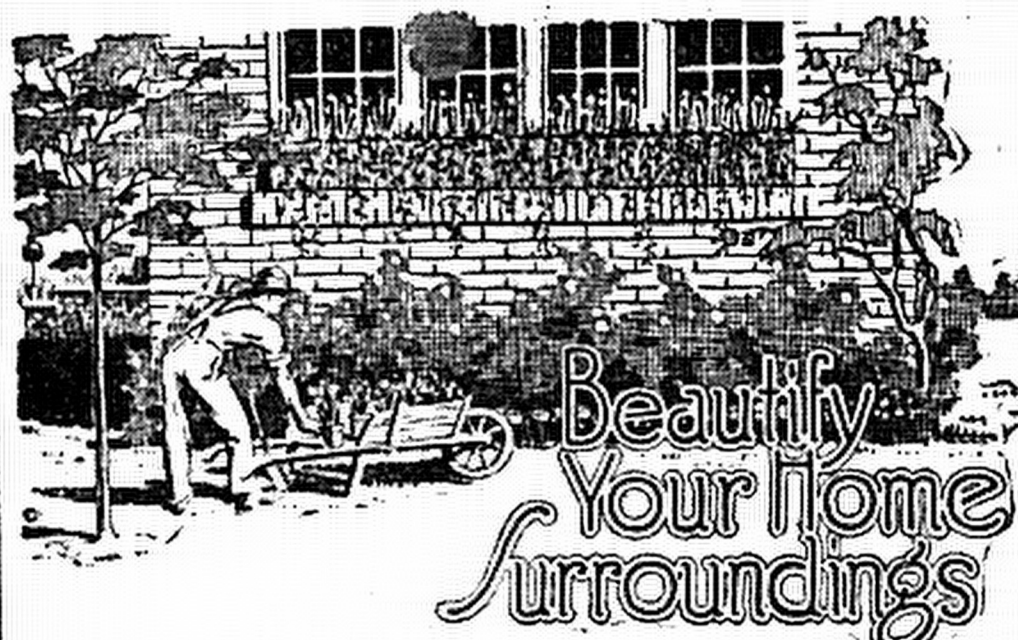

The value of foods depends on how good they are. If you buy a poor grade of foods that you are unable to use, it doesn't comfort you very much to know that you got them cheap. If you buy your groceries and meats from us you will have the standing assurance that everything is the purest and best that can be obtained. You will enjoy knowing too, that the prices you are paying for them are as low as can be found elsewhere—often lower.

WHEAT PRICE JUMPS SEVENTEEN CENTS

Excited Reaction Follows Yesterday's Sudden Fright Over Prospects of Peace.

Corn Also Going Skyward—Oats Also Stronger—Provision Movement Narrow.

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
Chicago, April 27.—Speculative demand proved sufficiently brisk today to force wheat prices a little higher. In the early part of the session, however, the market was quiet and prices were steady. The receipts of wheat at the city were 170,000 bushels, against 150,000 last week. The export trade was also brisk, and the market was well supplied. The price of wheat advanced 17 cents to $1.17 per bushel. Corn advanced 10 cents to $1.00 per bushel. Oats advanced 5 cents to $0.75 per bushel. Provisions were steady. The market for flour was also quiet.

Chicago, April 27.—The market for wheat was excited today by the news that the armistice had been signed. The price of wheat advanced 17 cents to $1.17 per bushel. Corn advanced 10 cents to $1.00 per bushel. Oats advanced 5 cents to $0.75 per bushel. Provisions were steady. The market for flour was also quiet.

HOLD JOBS FOR MEN WHO ENLIST

Promise Made by Pictorial Company Chief at Flag Raising.

"Every employee of the Pictorial Printing company who enlists for war service against Germany will be given his position with the Pictorial company, after his return from war." The announcement was made yesterday by John Hunt, an official of the company in a speech at a big flag raising.

The Aurora West High school cadets drilled, and the G. A. R. fifes and drum corps and the Mooseheart band played.

Mayor Harley said: "Fellow Americans, who have a reputation of being loyal to your employers, once more employees and employers of an Aurora company join in a flag raising exercise. I compliment you on your spirit of patriotism. It shows that you are not pro-European, nor pro-Atlantic, but that you are for the United States first, last and all the time. We are one people, one nation and we are standing solidly behind the president."

Mayor Harley also called the attention of the assemblage to the absolute need of conservation of food.

James L. Coffey introduced Mr. Hunt. Mr. Hunt said: "The events of the last two years have been of such magnitude that we hardly understand. This flag raising is so we may renew our allegiance, to our flag. We are raising this flag to show Aurora and America where we stand. It is the flag that gave Cuba back to Cuba; that took no indemnity from China. We want no territory, and we are not in this war for conquest or glory but for humanity's sake. We want to trade that we cannot get by fair competition. Some of our boys are already in line. We

WAR CRAZED; SUICIDES

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 27.—J. D. Kinnear, purchasing agent of the Mineral Point Zinc company, leaped to his death from the twelfth floor of the Marquette building today. His mind was believed to have been unbalanced third brooding over the war. In his pockets were found newspaper articles telling of the entrance of the United States into the war and a poem, "I Have a Rendezvous With Death," written by a soldier in the French trenches.

No one saw Kinnear climb over the protective railing in the rotunda but the height of the barrier was declared to preclude the possibility of an accidental fall. Kinnear remained in the firm's office nearly all night and was seen several times by night workers in the building. Relatives live in Iowa.

TONIGHT and TOMORROW Vitagraph Presents

PEGGY HYLAND WITH MARC McDERMOTT IN "BABETTE"

The story of a GIRL who saved a man's SOUL, without ever knowing the miracle she had wrought. Direct from the Rialto Theatre, New York and the Ziegfeld Theatre, Chicago.

Harriet Underhill in The New York Tribune wrote: Pretty Peggy Hyland is at the Rialto in a fascinating little picture play called "Babette," which embodies all the thrills which audiences love to feel. Miss Hyland does not try to be cute — she is cute. — Marc McDermott is quite irresistible.

The New York Sun critic said: Peggy Hyland will add much to her growing popularity with the title role "Babette." She has regular features and large lustrous eyes like those of Marguerite Clark and is destined to become an American favorite.
